

Monday 12 October 2020: bookings open for 2021 season!

Bookings open today, 12 October 2020, for all 2021 tickets and overnight stays at Puy du Fou, France's second largest theme park. Highlights of the 2021 season, which opens on 3 April 2021, include:

- 176 Grand Parc opening days
- 31 performances of the Cinéscénie
- 2 new original productions, to be unveiled shortly

Open till 1 November 2020

During 2020, Puy du Fou will stay open until 1 November, offering its trademark portfolio of shows and immersive experiences, including this year's new large-scale production, 'Les Noces de Feu'. The night-time spectacle carries its audience on an evocative journey to the heart of the romantic 19th century. Accompanied by music and special effects, the violinist Muse and Pianist meet again to celebrate their everlasting love in a magical extravaganza of fire and water.

More information from www.puydufou.com/france/en.

Next stop, Puy du Fou España

Following a hugely successful two-year run of the thrilling night-time show, 'El Sueño de Toledo', Puy du Fou España will open the doors of its new park, taking its visitors on a spellbinding journey through the History of Spain. From 27 March 2021, attractions at Puy du Fou España will include 4 superb shows and 4 period villages, set amidst 30 hectares of countryside close to Toledo in central Spain.

Tickets to Puy du Fou España and 'El Sueño de Toledo', and overnight stays, will be available for booking from 27 October 2020. More information from www.puydufouespana.com/en.

Useful information

2021 season: 3 April to 1 November 2021

Prices:

- Tickets from €37/€27 (adult/child)

Overnight stays:

- One-night B&B, with one-day Park pass, from €62 pp.

Information and reservations:

www.puydufou.com/france/en